

Calling Design Interns for summer/fall/spring semesters

Want to work for an edgy, future-forward, hip, smart city magazine? Raleigh Magazine may have a spot for you.

Our Summer/Fall/Spring internships are in-house, 10 hours per week minimum (set schedule).

The internships are unpaid, but we are more than willing to sign off on course credit as applicable.

Design candidates will report to lead designer and can expect to learn:

- Gain experience in Adobe Creative Suites (InDesign, Photoshop, Illustrator, etc.)
- Design layouts for print (editorial and advertising) working with writers, editors and advertisers throughout the creative process
- Learn design processes from start to finish
- Build skills in SEO, Wordpress, newsletters
- Gain social media experience
- Work with a high-energy, tight-knit positive team with real opportunities to contribute

Interested candidates should email the following to Liz Reed, Graphic Designer (liz@raleighmag.com):

Subject: (Season) (Year) Design Internship Candidate

Example: Subject: Fall 2022 Design Internship Candidate

Please specify:

Name: Major:

Will you be seeking course credit?

Graduation year (anticipated or prior):

Available start date:

Availability for the semester/summer (M-F, in office; please note if you have a preferred availability).

Resume (attach) or LinkedIn: