STADIUM SERIES GAME: WHAT IF IT RAINS?

Short of bartering with God, the Canes will pull out all the stops to take the ice on schedule. Random heat wave? No problem. Sun, clouds, snow or ice? Fine. Freezing temps? Great. The one showstopper: a steady, soaking rain. Should we get that rare February soaking rain, the NHL has reserved Sunday evening as a backup. nhl.com
